ABOUT MOOT COURT COMMITTEE (MCC)

Asian Law College has an active Moot Court Committee comprising students and faculty mentors that focuses on training students in mooting, organizing national and international competitions and facilitating interactions with experienced advocates and judges. Equipped with a state-of-the-art Moot Court Hall, the Committee fosters advocacy skills and research through workshops, competitions and collaborations with other institutions. Moot Court training provided to students at ALC significantly enhances their practical exposure during internships, equipping them with real-world legal insights and advocacy skills that help them excel in professional environments and competitive platforms.

The Committee provides students with regular opportunities to develop essential skills such as legal research, memorial drafting, oral advocacy and courtroom etiquette. Through structured training sessions and expert guidance, students gain confidence in analysing complex legal issues and presenting persuasive arguments. Participation in moot court activities also encourages teamwork, critical thinking and effective communication. Overall, the Moot Court Committee serves as an important platform for bridging the gap between classroom learning and practical legal training, preparing students for successful careers in the legal profession.
