ABOUT SHASTRARTHA

Shastrartha – The Debating Society of Dharmashastra National Law University – is the cornerstone of our university's culture of dialogue, intellectual inquiry, and critical thought. Since its inception, the society has grown from humble beginnings into a vibrant platform that nurtures eloquence, analytical reasoning, and persuasive advocacy among students. What began with online editions of parliamentary debates has now evolved into a legacy of spirited competitions, with members representing DNLU as participants and adjudicators at prestigious tournaments across the country. More than a society, Shastrartha is a community where ideas are challenged, perspectives are broadened, and voices are refined. It embodies the conviction that debate is not just about winning arguments, but about engaging meaningfully with diverse viewpoints and sharpening one's understanding of the world.
