QUERIES

colloquiumrgsoipl@gmail.com

Institution Platform: India's first IIT and the law school it founded to bring legal scholarship to the frontier of technology.

IIT Kharagpur

ESTABLISHED 1951 · INSTITUTE OF EMINENCE

Established in 1951, IIT Kharagpur is the first Indian Institute of Technology and a pioneer of technical education and research in India. With 19 academic departments, 13 schools of excellence, eight multidisciplinary centres and over 25 central R&D units, it fosters a vibrant ecosystem for innovation and interdisciplinary inquiry.

Recognised as an Institute of Eminence in 2019, IIT Kharagpur was the first IIT to bring non-engineering disciplines such as law and management into its academic framework — a commitment to holistic, socially impactful education.

RGSOIPL

ESTABLISHED 2006 · FIRST LAW SCHOOL IN AN IIT

Established in 2006, the Rajiv Gandhi School of Intellectual Property Law is India's first law school within a premier technology institute, envisioned to bridge law and technology. It ranks first in Legal Research among law institutions nationwide (NIRF 2024).

The School offers a three-year LL.B. (Hons.), a two-year LL.M. in Intellectual Property, International and Criminal Law, a Ph.D. programme and a Master's in Public Policy and Governance. Its scholars publish with Oxford, Cambridge, Wiley, Springer, SAGE, Taylor & Francis and Brill.

The Theme

Navigating the Wild: Law, Technology and the Architecture of Accountability

“Who should be accountable in a technology-driven, fast-changing and dynamic environment — and through what legal mechanism?”

The theme names a foundational abrasion of our time: technologies that are largely autonomous and opaque are being asked to function within legal bounds designed for a slower world.

FIVE FRONTIERS OF THE WILD

01

Artificial Intelligence

Far-reaching decisions without any real culpability for misfeasance.

02

Algorithmic Systems

Shape access to credit, employment and speech while invisible to those affected.

03

Decentralised Platforms

Relocate value across borders, outside the reach of any single jurisdiction.

04

Synthetic Biology

Reconfigures life at the molecular level — property, liability and biosafety.

05

Semiconductors

The chip race provokes complex dialogue on markets, environment and development.

Objectives

- 01 Provide research scholars a platform to present and validate ongoing research in a peer-reviewed environment.
- 02 Bring together leading scholars, practitioners and policymakers to advance interdisciplinary discourse on accountability at the law–technology interface.
- 03 Encourage rigorous, publishable research outputs on contemporary law and technology questions.
- 04 Reinforce the national and international visibility of IIT Kharagpur and RGSOIPL while celebrating the Institute's Platinum Jubilee.

THE REGULATORY MOMENT

The Colloquium is precisely responsive to the global regulatory moment:

- EU AI Act
- India's Digital Personal Data Protection Act 2023
- SEBI's algorithmic trading rules
- WIPO Conversation on IP and AI

It draws on RGSOIPL's distinctive tech-law identity to bring scholarly presentations, practitioner insight and policy debate onto one platform.

Sub-Themes

INDICATIVE

Extended Abstracts are invited on the central theme and on the following indicative sub-themes, each branching from the architecture of accountability:

01

Algorithmic Liability & Technological Accountability

AI liability, automated decision-making in public administration, the adequacy of existing tort frameworks, explainability as a legal obligation and algorithmic bias in adjudication.

AI liability

Automated decisions

Tort law

02

Data, Privacy & Surveillance Architectures

Personal data protection under the DPDP Act 2023 and the GDPR, data fiduciary obligations, consent architecture in platform economies, state surveillance and the outer limits of AI in national security.

DPDP Act 2023

GDPR

Surveillance

03

The Regulatory Frontier: AI, Platforms & the Law

The EU AI Act, India's emerging AI policy framework and sector-specific regulation — SEBI on algorithmic trading, IRDAI on InsurTech and RBI on FinTech.

EU AI Act

SEBI · IRDAI · RBI

India AI policy

04

Intellectual Property in the Age of Generative AI

Ownership of AI-generated output, training data as fair use or infringement, patent law and AI-assisted invention, and the meaning of inventorship when the creative agent is non-human.

Generative AI

Fair use

Inventorship

05

Emerging Frontiers: Blockchain, Biotech & Beyond

Smart contracts, DAOs and the jurisdictional challenge of blockchain transactions; legal and ethical frameworks for gene editing, synthetic biology, CRISPR and AI-generated genomics.

Blockchain & DAOs

CRISPR

Synthetic biology

06

Chips, Sovereignty & the Courtroom

The legal anatomy of the global semiconductor industry — supply-chain structure, where legal pressure points lie, and what India's semiconductor ambitions mean for its law and regulatory institutions.

Semiconductors

Supply chains

Chip sovereignty

The list is indicative, not exhaustive. Submissions on any allied question within the central theme are welcome.

Programme & Formats

AI POLICY

We allow the use of generative AI and similar technologies for extended abstract submissions only for minor language or formatting improvements (including formatting references).

Authors must not use AI tools for ideation, literature review, argument development, drafting, or citation generation. Any use must be disclosed at the time of submission in the extended abstract draft itself, specifying the tool, version, purpose and how it was used. Violation of this policy may lead to rejection, retraction, or other measures deemed necessary by the organising committee.
