ABOUT THE STALWART

This stalwart of law was born in the city of Jambusar near Bharuch in 1920 and bore the name Shri I . M. Nanavati. He came to Ahmedabad for law studies and at a very young age joined the bar in the footsteps of his father. In the initial years of his practice, he joined Maneklal Harilal Mills to look into Labour and Company Matters. With his foresight and hard work, he became famous and in a short time span he became one of the renowned advocates of India. He always took a keen interest in overall development of the people and in development of Educational Institutions. He was deeply interested in the promotion of education and did tremendous work in the field. His busy practice however was no bar to his love for social and educational activities, in which he took leading and prominent part. The inspiring zeal and managerial ability of Late Shri I. M. Nanavati had gone a very long way in establishing Gujarat Law Society. He contributed greatly to the stability and for the steady growth of the society during the period of his association with the Gujarat Law society. He was a teacher at the Law Faculty and is even today remembered for his outstanding quality and contribution as a teacher of Law, a very able administrator, and a noble human being who made his mark not only in the courts in Gujarat but also in the Supreme Court of India. He was an educated educationalist, a leading lawyer and the then Hon'ble Secretary of Gujarat Law Society. He left for heaven on January 15, 1981 in the city of Nairobi in South Africa.

Shri I. M. Nanavati

In the Will of Shri I.M. Nanavati he expresses his wish that "In the end, I desire that when I pass away, my mortal remains be drawn through the Ellisbridge Campus of the Gujarat Law Society of which I was a student and which I have served for more than 20 years as the Secretary and the institutions where of which I developed, I have loved like my children".

To commemorate the late Shri I. M. Nanavati who made his mark as an advocate and as an educationalist, Shri I.M. Nanavati Memorial Moot Court Competition is organized.

After his death Shri Nani Palkhiwala had said "India has lost an exceptionally able lawyer and the cause of public education has lost one of its great benefactors and ended with the beautiful lines:

"Lives of great men all remind us, We can make our lives sublime, And departing leave behind us, Footprints on the sands of time."
